

INDIVIDUALS AND HOUSEHOLDS PROGRAM
APPLICATION FOR CONTINUED TEMPORARY HOUSING ASSISTANCE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FOR

If you cannot return to your home due to disaster damage and you need help paying for a place to stay, FEMA may provide you Continued Temporary Housing Assistance. In order to receive assistance for your temporary housing expenses, you must complete and send this form to FEMA. FEMA will use the information in this form to confirm your eligibility for this assistance.

Please read these instructions before completing this form. If you have any questions or need help, call FEMA's Helpline at 1-800-621-3362.

Sections 1-6: Pre-filled Information

This section was filled in using information you gave FEMA when you applied for assistance. Review the information; if it is correct, move to Section 7: Housing Expenses. If your address or contact numbers are not correct, write the updated information in the space provided. If any other pre-filled information is incorrect, call FEMA's Helpline at 1-800-621-3362.

Definitions:

Current Mailing Address: Address where you want FEMA to mail information about your request for disaster assistance.

Current Phone: Phone number that FEMA may use to contact you about your request for disaster assistance.

Section 7: Housing Expenses

In this section, list your household's current housing expenses. If you are a homeowner and still have housing expenses for your disaster-damaged home, make sure to include them as well. You must send housing expenses documents, which may include.

HOMEOWNER EXPENSES FOR DAMAGED HOME

- Mortgage statement, real estate tax statement, and homeowners insurance (if paid separately from mortgage).
- If you still have essential utility expenses at your damaged home, see more info on how to include them under Temporary Housing Costs below.

TEMPORARY HOUSING COSTS

- Lease/rental agreement:
 - The lease or rental agreement must include the location of your home, amount of rent, length of lease, and number of occupants.
 - The lease must be signed by you or your co-applicant and the landlord.
- Rent receipts:
 - You must send rent receipts showing the date, location of the rental unit or home, and time period for which the rent payment applies. You may also send receipts showing any paid security deposit.
 - Your receipts must show that you have used the Rental Assistance money FEMA sent you for temporary housing. This includes expenses for hotels, motels, or other temporary housing.
- Essential Utilities:
 - You must provide bills or receipts for any gas, propane, electric, oil, trash, water, and sewer expenses you pay at your temporary home.
 - If you are a homeowner and still pay utilities at your damaged home and also at your temporary rental home, include the total amount you pay for each utility and send bills or receipts for each.

Next to the type of expense, write the dollar amount of your bill or payment and select how often you are billed for that expense. Send a copy of the document that shows how much you pay for each housing expense. You must send documents that can be verified.

EXAMPLE:

7. Housing Expenses (see instructions for definitions)
Expense	Current Amount	How often are you billed?
Mortgage	$1,495	(X) monthly () annually () other:
Real Estate Taxes	$1,600	() monthly () annually (X) other: every 6 months
Home Insurance	$700	() monthly () annually (X) other: every 6 months
Rent	$1,200	(X) monthly () annually () other:
Water, Sewer	$100	() monthly () annually (X) other: every 3 months

Definitions:

Housing Expense: Any payments made for rent or mortgage (including principal, interest, and real estate taxes), home insurance, and utility costs such as water, gas, propane, oil, trash, electricity, sewer. This does not include television, cable, internet, or telephone service.

Real Estate Taxes: Taxes paid on your damaged home. Only list this expense if the taxes are paid separately from your mortgage.

Home Insurance: Any type of insurance policy (such as homeowners, renters, flood, or earthquake insurance) that covers your damaged home. Only list this expense if the insurance is paid separately from your mortgage.

Temporary Housing Unit: A house, apartment, condominium, manufactured home, recreational vehicle, or other dwelling where you are staying temporarily. A rented room or group of rooms in a home with shared spaces (such as a kitchen, bathroom) may qualify as a housing unit only if the area is generally available for rent to the public.

Section 8: Current Landlord Contact Information

Provide your current landlord's contact information.

Section 9: Income Information

Provide the income of each person aged 18 and older who is living with you at your temporary home. If anyone aged 18 and older in the home does not have an income, list their name and "$0" in this section. You will need to provide a written explanation of why they don't have an income. If anyone in your household has more than one source of income, list each source separately. You must send copies of documents to verify any income reported on the application. Documents may include:

- W-2 forms or tax returns from most recent tax year
- Recent pay stub
- Documentation of income from self-employment
- Documentation of government assistance, including Social Security

EXAMPLE:

9. Income Information (for each person aged 18 years and older living in the current home)
Name	Gross Income (before taxes)	How often do you receive this income?
Maria Quin	$1,495.00	(X) monthly () annually () other:

Section 10: Permanent Housing

Select the box that best describes your housing situation before the disaster and your plan for permanent housing after the disaster. If known, provide the date you expect to move into permanent housing. FEMA understands that recovery after a disaster takes time. You do not have to complete Section 10 the first time you send FEMA this form. You will need to select a Permanent Housing Plan if you request additional Continued Temporary Housing Assistance a second time.

Definition:

Permanent Housing Plan: A plan to return to your pre-disaster home after repairs are made or find another permanent home.

Section 11: Conditions

Read this section carefully. To be considered for Continued Temporary Housing Assistance, you must agree that each statement is true for your situation.

Section 12: Declaration

Once you have completed the form, read the declaration statement, then sign and date the form.

Send the completed form to FEMA with copies of all supporting documents, such as pay stubs, mortgage statements, lease, utility bills, rent receipts, etc.

If you have questions about this form or disaster assistance, call FEMA's Helpline at 1-800-621-3362 or visit www.DisasterAssistance.gov.

If you use a video relay service, captioned telephone service, or other communication services, please provide FEMA the specific number assigned for that service.

If you feel that you have been discriminated against, you may contact the Civil Rights Unit within the Office of Equal Rights by email at FEMA-CivilRightsOffice@fema.dhs.gov or call 1-833-285-7448.

10. PERMANENT HOUSING PLAN

I was RENTING my home at the time of the disaster and my permanent housing plan is to:

- Return to my pre-disaster rental unit
- Move into a new rental unit within my budget
- Move in with family/friends Projected move in date: _____

I OWNED my home at the time of the disaster and my permanent housing plan is to:

- Repair or rebuild my disaster-damaged home
- Build a new home at my disaster-damaged home address or at a new site
- Purchase a different home
- Become a renter and find a rental property within my budget
- Move in with family/friends Projected move in date: _____

11. CONDITIONS

Please read the following statements carefully. You may only receive Continued Temporary Housing Assistance if you meet all of the following requirements:

- I still need help with temporary housing because I have used all previous FEMA Rental Assistance for temporary housing expenses, and I don't have any other options to meet my temporary housing needs.
- My household does not receive assistance and is not eligible for housing assistance from another public agency such as the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, or any agency or organization providing housing.
- I do not own a secondary or vacation home within a reasonable distance of my disaster-damaged home that is available for my housing needs.
- I am looking for permanent housing within my budget that is within reasonable commuting distance from work and/or school.

The following applies only if you owned your disaster-damaged home and have decided to repair it:

- I have a plan to repair--or have started repairing-- my disaster-damaged home, and I intend to move back into it when the repairs are complete.

12. DECLARATION

NOTE: If you intentionally make false statements or hide information in order to receive disaster assistance, it is a violation of federal and state laws. This may carry severe criminal and civil penalties. Penalties may include a fine up to $250,000, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C § 287, 1001, and 3571).

I declare under penalty of perjury that the information I provided above is true and correct.
